

WPMC Scholarship Award Description

Description

The purpose Woburn Public Media Center Scholarship is to promote dedication to the field of public access media and communication. Public access television is vital to the community of Woburn.

Award Amount: $500.00

Criteria for Application:

The WPMC Scholarship Board is looking for an individual who is pursuing a future in the media, communications, graphic arts, or related field.

- A Woburn resident.
- Graduating from high school this academic year.
- High school transcript.
- Planning to study the field of communication, media, visual arts, or has demonstrated a commitment to the promotion of public access television by volunteering or participating as a member at WPMC.
- Pursuing a degree in an accredited program.

Application Requirements

Completion of WPMC Scholarship Application

One of the following:

- Any type of written work (essay, poem, fictional story, etc.) explaining why you think public access television is important to the community.
- A sample of something you worked on (with a brief description of your role) that has been aired on public television or a sample of a media project you have developed.

Finalists will be interviewed by the scholarship committee.

2012 Application Timeline:

April 1st: Application and submission deadline.

April 9th – April 13th: Interview period.

April 20th: Winner announced.

Contacts:

Woburn Public Media Center, 88 Montvale Avenue, Woburn, MA 01801

Phone: 781-937-8210 X200

woburnpublicmediactr@comcast.net

Scholarship Committee

Siobhan Curran, Scholarship Chair, 781-389-3641, siocurran@hotmail.com

Jean Graham

Jim Duran

Ed Maguire

Brian Ouellette

Michael McDonough

Greg Ahearn

Art Duffy